

Rethinking the Idea of Waste!

A Lecture by Tom Szaky

Friday, March 30th 17:30-18:30

Central European University,
TIGY Room, Nádor u. 11

Meet Tom Szaky, a true Hungarian success story. Tom founded TerraCycle in the United States as a 19-year-old Freshman at Princeton University. Now he is changing the world.

Come learn about Tom's mission and vision as he brings TerraCycle back to his homeland, Hungary!

The New York Times called TerraCycle, "the Google of Garbage"!

Tom was named "The #1 CEO Under Thirty" by Inc. magazine and "100 Most Brilliant" by Entrepreneur Magazine.

His company, TerraCycle, is the world's leader in repurposing non-recyclable consumer waste!

CENTER FOR CLIMATE CHANGE AND SUSTAINABLE ENERGY POLICY

CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY

